2-11.4. Request for Oral Argument

Appeals in all cases shall be submitted for decision without oral argument, unless a written request for permission to orally argue is filed in the clerk's office by a party within ~~fourteen (14)~~ thirty (30) days after the filing of the record in the court, and permission is granted. Ordinarily timely requests for oral argument will be granted, except in cases assigned for summary disposition. When permission for oral argument has been granted to one party, the right to oral argument extends to all parties, unless the right to orally argue has been forfeited. A request for oral argument in letter form by one of the parties is acceptable.
