BEFORE: CARTER, C.J., WHIPPLE AND MCDONALD, JJ.

CARTER, C. J.

Plaintiff seeks review of the trial court's judgment sustaining defendant's peremptory exception raising the objection of prescription. After de novo review, we agree with the trial court's decision that plaintiff's suit,<sup>1</sup> filed more than thirty days after the decision of the Brusly Board of Adjustment, is prescribed. See LSA-R.S. 33:4727E.

The judgment appealed from is affirmed in accordance with Uniform Court of Appeal Rule 2-16.2.A(2), (6). Costs of this appeal are assessed to George M. "Skipper" Grady.

AFFIRMED.

<sup>1</sup> Although styled as a suit for declaratory judgment, plaintiff is clearly seeking review of the Brusly Board of Adjustment's decision.
